WHY USE A SCA (Vic) MEMBER?

Ethical Business Practice

Not all owners corporation managers are members of SCA (Vic). Only professional owners corporation managers who meet the strict requirements laid down by SCA (Vic) are eligible for membership.

Central to the prerequisites of membership is acceptance and adherence of the SCA (Vic) Code of Professional Conduct (available on our website). The Code of Professional Conduct sets a high standard for practice, over and above the requirements of legislation.

Training

SCA (Vic) encourages the education of owners corporation managers and their employees. SCA (Vic) organises seminars and conferences on matters impacting the industry.

Representation of the Profession

SCA (Vic) is active in representing its membership and their clients in government and commercial circles. SCA (Vic) monitors all matters affecting the owners corporation industry. Through SCA (Vic) newsletters, SCA (Vic) members are kept abreast of proposed changes to legislation and other essential industry or market facts which may influence the business and investment decisions.

Consumer Protection

Written complaints are handled by the General Manager, and heard by an expert Ethics & Complaints Sub-Committee. If any member shall wilfully refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of the Constitution, Code of Professional Conduct, or shall be guilty of any conduct unbecoming of a member, and any other guideline or standard formally approved and adopted by SCA (Vic), SCA (Vic) has the disciplinary power to censure, fine, suspend or expel the member from SCA (Vic).

THE ROLE OF AN OWNERS CORPORATION

MANAGER

Owners corporation managers are professionals responsible for the administration of owners corporations charged with the responsibility to maintain buildings and common areas with an owners corporation

Managers are specialists in their field, possessing the knowledge and skill to administer the owners corporation in accordance with the complex requirements of the Victorian legislation to achieve consensus in decision making and to otherwise assist home unit owners by assuming onerous responsibilities.

Their functions are not those of real estate agents.

Owners corporation managers are involved in coordinating the affairs of unit owners including:

- Conducting meetings
- Collecting and banking levies
- Arranging property maintenance
- Advising on asset management
- Placing insurance
- Keeping financial accounts
